TO THOSE I LOVE

My life has come to a sudden end, but in Heaven my life has just began.
 No more burdens can weigh me down.
 I've landed safely on Heaven's Ground.
 I know you're sad and hurting, too,
 But Jesus will be there to see you through.
You are not alone. I'll always be there in your hearts that is where.
You'll be guided with God's love as I watch over you with pride.
 I will be there in spirit, He will be by your side.
 The time we spent was blessed by God,
 And you will always be in my heart.
I love you all, but please live on until you meet me in my New Home.

Obituary

Mrs. Virginia Ruth Summers, of Teaneck, New Jersey, was born on June 20, 1942 in Mountville, South Carolina, to the late Clyde Grant and Carrie Lee Eichelberger Grant.

She attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina and was a graduate of Bell Street High School Class of 1960. She moved to Philadelphia in the fall of 1960; then on to Hackensack, New Jersey with her sister, Shirley.

In 1962, Virginia graduated from the Institute of Dietetics in New York City, New York. She then married her high school sweetheart, James A. Summers, in 1964, who preceded her in death in 2015. She went on to graduate from Felican and Bergen Community College of Nursing in 1983, all while working at the Hackensack University Medical Center where she retired after forty years.

In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by one sister, Betty Grant and two brothers, Clyde Grant, Jr. and Clarence Grant.

On Wednesday, August 14, 2019, the Lord swung His sweet chariot down as He quietly and peacefully called Mrs. Summers home.

She is survived with precious memories by one daughter, Sylvia (Fred, Jr.) Davis, of Milford, PA; four grandsons, Freddie, Joshua, Isaiah, and Shawn; three nephews, Sean Davis, of Mountville, SC, Charles Grant and Michael Grant, both of Charlotte, NC; a devoted sister, Shirley Jones of Mountville, SC; four cousins, Brenda Cook-Bartee of Cross Hill, SC, Minister Christopher Scott Richards and Nora Grant-Cook, both of Mountville, SC, and Peter Grant of Fayetteville, NC, and a host of many other relatives and friends.
