Obituary

Elease Herrington Williams was born on September 28, 1928 in Sardis, Georgia to the late Robert Herrington and the late Maggie Parrish Herrington. She entered Heaven's gate on Sunday, May 10, 2020.

Elease made a huge impact in any person's life that she came into contact. She was the matriarch of the family. She was our historian with a wealth of knowledge. She enjoyed spending time and talking with family and friends educating you on life and politics while telling jokes. You could always look forward to having a good laugh while talking with her or in her presence. She was our Madea. She was an excellent cook and baker. She was known for her famous sweet iced tea. She was a true believer of education so much so that she returned to school later in life to complete her education.

During her years of employment, she had the honor of providing services for families that would create bonds that lasted a lifetime. Elease worked as a clerk for the Supervisor of Elections for over 30 years.

Elease was a member of the Abraham Turner Court Calanthe #251 for seventy years. During that time, she served as Secretary of Deeds and Treasurer.

Elease was predeceased by her husband Ernest Williams of Millen, GA. She was predeceased by sons James Herrington and Will I Williams, Sr. She was predeceased by brother Jonas Herrington of Augusta, GA. She was predeceased by grandson Alvin Herrington.

Elease is survived by her son, John H Williams (Annette) of Miami, FL. She is survived by her sisters, Georgia Mae Striggles, Lena Mae Law, Iola Lewis, Eunice Beasley, Naomi Beasley and Louise Oliver of Fort Lauderdale, FL. She is survived by a host of grandchildren Jacqueline Williams and Will I Williams, Jr of Fort Lauderdale, FL; John Kenny Herrington and Molinda Richardson of Augusta, GA; Marlo Person Williams (Keith) of Rex, GA; John Craig Williams (Tawanda) of Stonebridge, GA; She is survived by daughter in law Lula (Dean) Herrington of Augusta, GA; goddaughter, Eunice Roman of Palm Beach, FL and a host of great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, brother in laws and sister in laws.

Elease was lovingly cared for by her family and friends. We the family really appreciated all the "special" cooked meals and care that was given and share their greatest gratitude.

Elease you will forever be missed, and you will forever hold a special place in the hearts of those whom had the pleasure to be graced by your presence.

Forever Love,
Family
