

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; get: or, seek. A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now i'm free,
I'm following the path god laid for me.
I took his hand when i heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things i too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, i savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free

LIFE REFLECTIONS OF JAMES BENNETT WILLIAMS

In a little country town of Pelham Georgia on August 29, 1941 a son was born to the parents of John Ira Williams, Sr. and Pinkie Randall in which they named him "James". John Ira Williams, Sr. and Pinkie Williams relocated their family from Georgia to Pompano Beach, Florida and would make this city home for them. James was one of nine children. Five of which preceded him in death, George, Robert, Mary Frances, John Williams, Jr. and Yvonne.

On Tuesday May 6, 2020 approximately 12:45 a.m. at Florida Medical Center James Williams answered God's call and departed this life to his Heavenly home.

James was a very devoted man towards his family and friends. In every way he always tried to provide encouragement, positivity, and most of all belief in God; and his strength to carry each person through whatever challenges they faced.

On June 16, 1963 James and Nettie would join in Holy Matrimony, and she was the Love of his Life; and to this union they were blessed with one child Bennett Williams. Bennett his son was his caretaker up until his call home. James was very close not only to his immediate family, but was highly regarded by all his in-laws; they considered and respected him as their eldest brother on decision making on all things.

James Williams worked for thirty-four years at a company called Rinker Materials where he was a Truck Driver. During his tenure there he gain many friends; with his warm personality towards them, this led to lifetime relationships among his fellow co-workers. "Jimmy" as they called him was also a Shop Steward for many years helping the employees with any problems and disputes they might have had on the jobsite.

His favorite pastime was watching the Miami Dolphins, which he was a season ticket owner for many years. James also had a gifted, glorious, singing voice. He was the lead singer of the Gospel Group called "Silver Trumpets", His most important pastime hobby was spending time with his wife at the mall (LOL).
