

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;

Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones' touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief;

Don't lengthen it now with grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgments

The family wishes to acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy and gestures of kindness shown to us following our sad loss. We would like to give our heartfelt thanks to the many family, friends, and well-wishers who attended the viewing and service and provided emotional support for us at this difficult time. May God continue to bless each of you.

Obituary

Pamela Vickers also known as Gay was born on the 28th of April 1953 in the district Axe-and-Adze in Parish of Hanover, Jamaica. She is the second child of Rosetta Johnson.

Gay was raised in a Christian environment and became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church at the age of nine being baptized by the late Pastor Bennett.

In the later part of her high school years Gay joined the backup group of the Bob Marley Reggae Singers, singing with people such as Ritter Marley, Judy Mowatt and Marcia Griffiths. It was during such time that Gay joined the Rastafarian movement.

Pamela migrated to the United States of America and lived in New York where she had two sons: Prince & Negus Vickers. Later she moved to Fort Lauderdale, FL where she had her last son Shanty Vickers. She lived in Florida most of her life and passed away on September 19, 2020.

Gay, Pamela is survived by her mother Rosetta Johnson; her three sons: Prince, Negus and Shanty; 12 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren, uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and many cousins.

She said Good-bye to all.
