

*Our Lovely Rose
Only time can help us now
We will have to live on, but don't know how
We love you gentle Rose
you're in Gods hands now*

*Our Lovely Rose
Your face will never be erased, from our minds or memories, never...
You'll live deep within us forever.*

*Our Lovely Rose,
You taught us many things in this life.
How to live for God and walk upright, you taught us how to pray and have faith,
You taught us how to trust God and obey.*

*Our Lovely Rose
You are the star that lights our sky.
Our Lovely Rose,
It is so hard to say goodbye.
So we will say so long for now our Sweet
Rose,
Enjoy your peaceful repose.*

*Our Lovely Rose
Only time can help us now,
We will have to liv on but font know how.*

*We love You gentle Rose,
You're in God's hands now.*

Her Story

Rosa Mae Jackson was born Rosa Mae Badger on September 15, 1925 in Allendale, SC to the late Robert and Rosa Lee Aiken Badger. She was the 7th of 11 children, all of whom preceded her in death.

Rosa attended the Public School System in Allendale, SC in the 1940's she moved to Boston, Mass. Where she lived for a short time before deciding to relocate to Brooklyn, New York. This is where she met and married WWII Veteran. Mr. Reuben h. Jackson. Rosa Mae had one daughter: Mrs. Glorian Jean Badger Oliver and one son-in-law: Mr. Albert Oliver, Sr.

Rosa Mae gave her life to God in the early 1950's while attending the Church of Jesus Christ apostolic on Brooklyn, NY.

Rosa, along with her husband Reuben would travel all over the United States taking advantage of the many opportunities to witness about the wonderful workings of the Lord! They would later settle down in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Rosa Mae would eventually become a member of The General Assembly Church of the First Born, Inc. under the leadership of Bishop Cooper.

Mr. Reuben H. Jackson, the love of Rosa Mae's life would precede her in going home to be with the Lord on January 12, 1984.

In her latter years, Mother Jackson resided in Fort Lauderdale, Florida to be closer to her daughter and grandchildren.

Mother Rosa Mae Jackson is survived by her daughter: Glorian Oliver (Albert Sr.); four grandchildren: Albert Oliver, Jr. (Arethea) Eastvale, CA, Quincy Oliver (Colleen) Sunrise, FL, Lashelle Oliver, Lauderhill, FL and LaRosa Oliver-Laing (Xonnel) Tamarac, FL; 21 great grandchildren; 16 great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, extended relatives and longtime sister in the Lord, Pastor Elizabeth Rich.
