

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When Tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand;
The angel said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But when I walked through Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,
For God looked down, smiled at me,
And told me "Welcome Home."
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.*

Her Story

*I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me
a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.*

II Timothy 4:7-8

A long, beautiful and happy life came to a close when our Beloved, Mother Willie Ree Thomas, took the Express Train with a one way non-stop ticket to Heaven on Thursday, April 8, 2021.

Willie Ree Thomas was born and raised upon a farm in Inverness, Alabama on February 15, 1929 to the parentage of Milton and Loubell Posely.

She attended school in Inverness, Alabama. Years later she came to Fort Lauderdale, Florida and joined New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church. It was there where she met James Thomas and they later united in holy matrimony. She served as a Deaconess, Church mother, and BTU Teacher under the leadership of Reverend D.C. Poole and currently under Reverend Sylvester Davis.

Her hobbies were fishing, cooking, sewing and most of all initiating her fascinating Bible Trivia.

Mother Thomas was preceded in death by her parents: Milton and Loubell Posely, husband: James Thomas and her 4 children.

Willie Ree Thomas leaves to cherish her memories three children: Theodis Williams (Rosemary), Sheila Williams and Emily Braziel (Richard, her favorite son-in-law), (13) Grandchildren; (18) Great Grandchildren; (16) Great Great Grandchildren; 2 Special and Dear Daughters in Christ, Dr. Eunice Davis and Reverend Joyce Wright and a host of nieces, nephews and other sorrowing relatives and friends.
