

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

His Story

Charles Franklin Gaskin was the third child and firstborn son of Charles Julius Gaskin (deceased) and Annie Ruth McCutcheon Gaskin. He was born on November 20, 1957 in Pompano Beach, Florida. The first-born daughter, Anginette Gaskin preceded Frank in death at 10 months of age. All grandparents preceded him in death, Harvey Gaskin, Sr and Viola Cockfield Gaskin. Eugene McCutcheon, Sr and Janie Burgess McCutcheon.

Frank attended Broward County Schools. He graduated from Piper High School in the year of 1975. He played intramural basketball for Piper.

His father, Charles Gaskin, who owned his own Plastering company and taught him how to plaster houses. Frank worked at Sun Sentinel Newspaper and became a Supervisor of the truck drivers for the company until he retired. He also worked at U-Haul and retired there as well. He also worked on marine boats. He worked very hard and was talented in his occupations.

He always had a great sense of humor and would keep everyone laughing whenever and wherever he was present. He liked to toy around playing his guitar.

He joined Jordan Missionary Baptist Church in Delray Beach, Florida under the pastorage of Robert G. Daniels. He loved church service and music. He also liked serving people and helping wherever he was needed.

GOD saw that he was tired of this world's turmoil and called him from mortality to immortality on June 2, 2021. We will forever miss him.

He leaves to mourn a devoted mother Annie Ruth Gaskin, Son, Chadrick (Aleshia) Ingram. Three grandsons, Jayden and Zachary Ingram and Christian Hunt. Three brothers, Minister Kenny Gaskin, Jeffrey Gaskin and Stevie (Suzanne) Gaskin. Three sisters Agnes (Robert) Daniels, Annie Bell Gaskin Hall and Shirley (Wilken Jr.) Tisdale. One uncle Eugene McCutcheon, Jr., Five Aunts, Mary Banks, Melva (Robert) Crutchfield, Jill McCutcheon, Milla Gaskin Green and Patricia (RV) Williamson of Philadelphia, PA. and a host of other relatives and friends.
