A MCWHITE'S FUNERAL HOME SERVICE

Her Story

Shirley Ann Gilmore was born on September 23, 1949 to the late Samuel Gilmore and Eva Mae Murray Gilmore. On May 31, 2021 Shirley peacefully answered the call to her heavenly father at home.

Shirley was raised and attended school in Wadley, Georgia. She graduated in 1967 with honors. At an early age she accepted Christ in Wadley, Georgia. In 1972 she relocated to Fort Lauderdale, Florida and started her work career at Broward General Medical Center for 37 years. She retired in 2007. Shirley was a diligent and stable employee - she was a nurse assistant and retired as a mental health technician.

In 1974 she met and married Haywood Hanna, to this union one son was born, Dennis Kevin Hanna. Shirley was a quiet and easy going person who will be missed.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one son Dennis Kevin Hanna, two brothers Linton (Tachin Song) Gilmore from Killeen Texas. Clinton Gilmore (Port Washington, Maryland), two sisters Lucille Sumter of Patterson, New Jersey, Loudella (James) Johnson (Philadelphia, Pennsylvania), Three Nephews David Chauncey (Pennsylvania), Ronald Johnson (Alaska), Mark Anthony Song Gilmore (Washington D.C.), one niece Sharon Song Gilmore (Dallas, Texas), special cousins (caretaker), Willie and Evelyn Smith, the late Eddie Smith and Virginia Smith, a host of other relatives and friends.
