

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Yoya May Hoo Gray wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation to all who by prayer and kind expressions of sympathy, have given their support in our time of loss.

God Bless You All

TO THOSE I LOVE & THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me and let me go; I have so many things to see and do, You must not tie yourself to me with tears. Be thankful for our beautiful years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love each has shown, and now it's time that I travel alone.

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted in trust. It's only for a time we must part. So bless the memories within your heart

I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call me and I will come. Though you can't see me or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen within your heart you will hear all my love around you soft and clear and then when you must come this way alone, I will greet you with a smile and say.

EULOGY

On May 16, 2022 our beloved mother, sister, aunt, friend, nurse and spinner of many yarns made her transition from this life to the next. Yoya May Hoo Gray was a Florence Nightingale to many.

Whether she cared for you when you were ill, or lent an ear to hear or you lent her an ear to listen to the many tales she told. To connect with her was to connect with history from the shop in Spanish Town giving away Papa's goods to the less fortunate, to riding her bicycle in England as a midwife, delivering comfort to WWII soldiers returning from battle, delivering babies in New York, rendering care in South Florida to the young and the old.

Though Yoya is no longer with us, her love lives on. She always looked for the good in everyone. In her memory please be kind to those you feel might not deserve it. Give love. Be love.

Yoya May Hoo Gray is survived by her daughter Michelle, son-in-law Les, brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.
