

Fly Away

To the woman who knew me better than I knew myself, To the woman who's always been my strength when I was weak, To the woman who's never judged me and always believed in me, No matter how far apart, no distance could ever make me feel a pain this bad, You've been with me everyday of my life, through every celebration, every trial and every tribulation.. You've always been here. My strength to keep pushing and my weakness now that you're gone I can't verbally express the pain I feel and I honestly don't know if I'll ever heal Grandma I love you, and I miss you oh so dearly Thank you for loving me when I didn't feel loved, For protecting me when I didn't feel secure, and hearing me when I didn't feel heard, You'll forever live on
IN ME.

Her Story

The Way....

On October 5, 1942 Annie L. Newsome was born in Lake City, Fl to the late Rosa Marie Saulsby. Annie lived in White Springs until 1952 when she moved to Lauderdale where she went to school and graduated from Dillard High School in 1960. After she graduated, Annie traveled to Bronx, Ny where she met and married Roger Clark. She gave birth to her one and only son Tarvuell Clark in October of 1965. In the late 70s Annie moved back to Fort Lauderdale where she purchased a home and lived.

The Life....

Annie's greatest love was her son, Tarvuell and her most blessed joy was his only child and daughter; Shakarra Archie (Otis) and three great grandsons that Annie praised dearly Cj, Me'Siyah, and Sincere. Annie had four siblings Ethelyn L. Davis (Mrs. Samuel Davis Jr.), Quinnella L. Caldwell, Lorenzo Saulsby (deceased) and Stanley E. Saulsby. Annie had a host a nieces and nephews as well.

Annie was an all around free spirit who spoke what was on her mind, when it was on her mind. Annie tried to help every one, If she could, that's just the type of person she was. Annie had the voice of an angel and could sure hold a tune.

The Truth....

Annie L. Clark was and still is loved by several but will surely be missed by many.
