

YOU NEVER SAID
GOODBYE

Author Unknown

*You never said your leaving,
You never said goodbye,
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew Why.*

*A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love all alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.*

*In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
That no other could ever fill.*

*It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.*

OBITUARY

James Collins Anderson was born in Rocky Ford, Georgia on May 10, 1952. He was one of seven children born to the late Monroe and Jimmie Anderson. The Anderson Family later moved to Sylvania, Georgia where James attended public schools. He attended Central High School, where he proudly played in the marching band and graduated in 1970.

In his youth, James, dedicated his life to Christ by joining and being baptized at Park Grove Baptist Church in Sylvania, Georgia.

After his high school graduation, James moved to Fort Lauderdale, Florida where he started his work journey. He worked with his brother at Anderson Paint and Body Shop.

He later worked for ten years with the local labor union. He retired from his work journey after twenty years of working in the Broward County School System.

After moving to Ft. Lauderdale, James met and joined in holy matrimony Cora Kittles. Through this union, God blessed them with three lovely daughters, Andrea, Tiffany, and Jamie. James was a devoted husband and father. He adored his daughters and grandchildren.

James leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Cora Kittles Anderson; three daughters, Andrea Scott, Tiffany Holliman (Noah), and Jamie Anderson; six siblings, Lewis Anderson (Maggie), McKinley Anderson (Lessie), Monroe Anderson Jr. (Lanette), Estelle Samiuel (Willie), Marian Brook (Don), and Sarah Williams; five grandchildren: Abdullah, Muhammad, Karriyma, Tatyanna, and Jady; one great grandchild, Nemiah; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
