

Reflections Of Our Beloved Maxie

"I love her and she's with God." RJ

"I love grandma." Sweetie

"She drove me to class on my first day of college.
I'll never forget it or her." Rodric

"When grandma would take me to Winn Dixie, we'd get ice cream from our special place. But, once we went and it was closed permanently, so we got in her black car, and it wouldn't start. She got out, opened the hood, and kicked the bumper. We never got ice cream, but that day we laughed so much." Jade

"She always took me walking and to ride my bike.
I'm going to miss her." Ahmad

"She always treated me like I was her own son. She's have snacks ready for me when I came over and made sure I wasn't hungry. She would always take me out to have fun." Tariq

"Whenever we would finish talking on the phone, we would always say to each other, You Go Girl!. When I was 5 or 6 she let me help her wash the car. I washed the inside of the car. She always made me smile and laugh a lot. I love and miss her." Alaysia

"I was so happy to see her at my 16th birthday party. She came from out of town to celebrate with me, I also loved to see her dress up.
I will miss her so much." Malik

"I am going to miss Grandma Maxie." Deangelo

"I will always love and miss her and the jelly cakes she made that I wanted to taste." Aaliyah

"As you begin your journey in the arms of the Lord, I will ALWAYS cherish the wonderful memories and the blessing Louis, Desiree, and I received when God placed you into our lives. You will be forever in my heart."
Angela

"I remember Mama Maxie being such a fashionista we're going out to a comedy show it was really cold. She pretty much told us girls if we're going to be cute, be cute. If we're going to be cold, be cold, but, you can't do both...lol." Latoya

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." -Romans 15:13

Obituary

Our shining star, Maxie S. Shakir, was born on December 8, 1950 to the late Jimmy Dawson and the late Lillian Jackson in Avon Park, Florida. As a young child she was raised in Dunnellon, Florida, and was also baptized there at Union Baptist Church. A little later, Maxie moved permanently to Fort Lauderdale, Florida where she grew up and established her life.

In 1968, Maxie graduated from Dillard High School and soon after married her beloved, the late Khalid A. Shakir (Arthur Mobley). To their union they were blessed with four children.

Throughout her adult life, Maxie worked in the electronics industry, as a licensed cosmetologist, owned a home daycare business, then later retired as a medical biller. Her enthusiasm for life was certainly vested in enjoying her grandchildren; that was her joy. She was certainly a woman of strength, determination, kindness, courage, purpose, honesty, family and faith. She was always genuinely willing to help and encourage others.

Furthering her spiritual life, Maxie rededicated her life to the Lord in the fall of 2015 at Mt. Bethel Baptist Church. On Tuesday, February 12, 2019, the Lord called our angel home.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory and carry on her beautiful family traditions her siblings Thelma Rainer, Henry Jackson, Jr., Roderick Jackson (Anna), her children Jamillah Shakir, Al-yasha Shakir (Angela), Sultan Shakir, and Khalid Shakir (Latoya), two stepchildren Howard Spry and Tracy Ross, thirteen grandchildren, a great grandson; a loving companion, Johnnie Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.”

Isaiah 41:10
