

WHAT IS AN UNCLE

An uncle is a special gift,
Received from God above
He starts out with kindness
Then adds and abundance of love.

HE taught you to do so many things
Just as if he were your dad.
You could talk to him about anything,
Then suddenly things didn't seem so bad.

His devotion is unconditional,
To that there is no end.
And as you get older,
He becomes more like a friend.

He is always willing to help you,
Any way that he can
Watching you grow up,
He was your biggest fan.

He has tremendous faith in you
He just had that special touch,
Its no wonder then my dearest
Uncle Bro,
Why you are loved so much!

OBITUARY

Clarence Lee Hollis was born on March 28, 1939 to the late Charlie and Estella Hollis in Thomasville, GA.

In accordance with God's will on Saturday, July 13, 2019 he was called home to be with the Lord.

Clarence had a wonderful life. He was educated in the public school of Thomas County Georgia and in Decatur County Georgia. His life was driven and directed by his love for people, not some people, but all people.

Clarence worked for the city of Plantation utilities from September 1973 to March 2001.

He was preceded in death by his brother Nathaniel Watkins and Sister Kathlene Hollis Davis and Mary L. Sawyer.

He leaves to cherish his precious and unforgettable memories: one son Clarence Hines, brothers: Paul D. Williams of Tampa, FL and Foundren Hollis of Fort Lauderdale, FL; and a lovely niece Angela Hollis. Special thanks to his significant other Rebecca Morrison and all his special kids.
