

POEM

*We'll always remember that special smile
That caring heart
that warm embrace you always have us
You being there for us through good times and bad
No matter what
We'll always remember you Dad They'll never be another one to replace in our hearts and the love we will always have for you

OBITUARY

Reverend Dennis Gerald Moore made his appearance in this world on August 8, 1953, Soddy Daisy, Tennessee. Born to Oralee Swafford Moore and the late Erie Moore Jr. Dennis as he was affectionately called, was educated in the Hamilton County public school system, and later attended Kirkland Technical College earning certificates in diesel mechanics, general carpentry and brick masonry.

In 1977, he married the love of his life, the former Flora Marie Adams of Ringold, Georgia. From this union, two beautiful children were born; Kristi Love and Craig Erie. Dennis was a devoted husband and proud father whose family loves and respects him to this day.

Dennis retired from Shaw Industries after 38 years of service. He was previously employed by Wheland Foundries in Chattanooga and along with wife Marie, owned Tuffy's Bar-B-Que stand for several years. Dennis was licensed and ordained as Baptist minister by Shiloh Missionary Church, Burning Bush Community of which he was a long time member, Assistant Pastor and Interim Pastor. He also served several local churches on an interim basis.

Dennis was a wealth of knowledge and didn't mind reading to find what he was looking for. He was an outdoors-man. He loved to fish, hunt, shoot firearms, crossbows and slingshots. He thought he could do everything and build or repair anything. From cars, boats or lawn mower motors to folding laundry and washing dishes he would do it. He was an expert in cooking, baking, grilling and didn't mind cleaning up as he worked. He volunteered as an adult leader with the Catoosa County 4-H program and was active citizen in local politics. Most of all Dennis was known for being easy to talk to and if you listened, between the punchline and the laugh, you were sure to always get a nugget of wisdom.

He leaves his beloved wife Marie, his daughter Kristi of Antioch, TN and son Craig of Baconton, Ga. He also leaves his mother Oralee Moore of Soddy Daisy, TN and brother Jackie (Cheryl) Moore of Inkster, MI. Sisters Sandra Moore of Soddy Daisy, TN and Julia Byrd of Chattanooga, TN. He also leaves a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. He was predeceased by a brother Larry Moore. Special thanks to Alvin "Bubba" Adams (brother-in-law), Kelly Sanders (friend), Mike Parrish (hunting buddy) and Jerry Cain (Partner in Crime).
