

Obituary—Egypt Naomi Ransom

Egypt Naomi Ransom was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee on February 19, 2013 to Bradford and Yashic Ransom. She was third of three children.

Egypt attended Cumberland Presbyterian Day Care until age three. She attended Pre-Kindergarten at Boyd Buchanon. Her family then relocated to Bryan, Texas where she attended Brazos Christian School. Egypt exceled in her favorite subjects which were reading and art.

Egypt was a little princess that was full of life. She was involved in an array of activities. Her activities included volleyball, cheerleading, soccer, gymnastics, and track. She won two first place awards in the 50 meter and 800-meter events. Egypt was an active participant in her Girl Scout Troop 9050, She earned multiple patches and she also won first place in cookie sales. Egypt loved to sing, dance, riding her bicycle. She was a natural in making new friends. She had the uncanny ability to make any-one laugh with her antics. Egypt had a special way of making anyone feel better when they were sad.

Our princess Egypt departed this life on June 26, 2020 at 12:50 pm at Texas Children in Houston, Texas. Egypt will be welcomed into Heaven by her beloved grandparents Elnora and Jessie Glover, her aunts Torella Neal and Cheryl Ransom and one uncle Alexstandart Glover.
