

Memories...

To Those Whom I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I have had so many years

I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each have shown
But now it is time I traveled on alone

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart

I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear

Then, when you must come this way alone
I will greet you with a smile and a
"Welcome Home"

Loving Memories

Mrs. Jewell Daniel Echols

June 26, 1922

August 24, 2020

Jewell D. Echols passed away peacefully in her sleep on Monday, August 24, 2020 at her home in Columbus Ohio. She was born on June 26, 1922 in Gaylesville, Alabama to Charlie and Birder Daniel who both preceded her in death. She had 11 siblings, Idella, Mozelle, Lilly, Thelma, Ross, Joe, Harold, Lee, Charlie Jr. and her twin brother Jack who all preceded her in death. She has 1 remaining living sibling, Velma Adams. At an early age Jewell was taught the craft of sewing by her mother that sparked a lifelong love and life skill. Jewell serviced her family and community with her sewing skills clothing them with beautiful garments.

Jewell was married to Benjamin D. Echols for 48 years until his death. With hard work early in their marriage they purchased a home in Trion, Georgia where they raised their 2 children Daniel Echols (Sandra) and Linda F. Taylor (Rezan). Jewell took pride in her well-manicured home which she decorated with beautiful fabrics and furnishings sewn and refurbished by her own craftsmanship. Jewell was employed at Riegel Textiles where she later retired. Although retired she continued to sew for several years. She dedicated her life to the Lord as a member of New Hope United Methodist Church.

Jewell also had 6 grandchildren April Echols, Rezan Taylor Jr. (R.I.P), Kenneth Echols, Leah Taylor, Damien Taylor and Nicholas Echols. She is survived by a host of great grandchildren, nieces and nephews who she loved dearly. Jewell lived a full life and was able to maintain her home which she took great pride well into her 90's. After taking ill later in life Jewell moved to Columbus Ohio where she resided with her son until her final days.
