Yogi's Life

Mrs. Yolanda Christian Beasley, affectionately known as "Yogi", was born August 14, 1949 in Calhoun, Georgia to Marie Christian. She joined Friendship Baptist Church - Calhoun at an early age, under the leadership of the late Reverend A.P. Perry, and remained a lifetime member. Yogi was educated in the Gordon County School Systems and later moved to Cartersville, Georgia and attended Summer Hill High School.

Yogi worked several jobs in her life, working many years at Westpoint Pepperell in Dalton, Georgia, as well as Shaw Industries. She finished her career at Floyd Medical Center from whence she retired. Yogi loved to cook, take care of others, and sew. She was truly a seamstress, as she could make complete custom outfits just by looking at you.

On Wednesday, November 25, 2020, Yogi took a rest from her earthly labors and received her eternal reward. She was preceded in death by her mother, Marie Christian; husband, Franklin Beasley; and brother, William Larry "Buck" Christian.

Yogi leaves to cherish her loving memories, her children, LaBron Byrd (Teresa Stubbs) and Walter Christian (Gwen); special daughter-in-law, Vera Byrd; sisters, Nancy Gordon (Bernard), Edith Cameron (Rufus), and Regina Reynolds; brother, Thomas Long; grandchildren; great grandchildren; special nieces, Phyllis Harris and Sonji Dixon; special friends, Dolly Sue Stallings, Carolyn Stallings, Mary Upshaw, Anthony Carson, Thomas Garrett, Jeanette Green and Miss Cookie; and a host of nieces, nephews, loved ones and friends.
