In Loving Remembrance

Your Smile

*Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hand we cannot touch
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
Your memory is our keepsake
With which we will never part
God has you in his keeping
We have you in our hearts.*

The Family of

Mrs. Betty Jean Weaver Quinn

A Brief Look At The Life Of Mrs. Betty Jean Weaver Quinn

Betty was born January 29, 1939 in Chatsworth, GA to the late Ezekiel Weaver, Sr. and Ollie Lee Dean Weaver. She departed her earthly life on Monday, January 25, 2021 in Bronx, New York. Betty was preceded by her parents, husband, David Quinn; son, Stan Weaver; and granddaughter, Shamika Lee Weaver.

Betty's parents moved the family to Dalton, GA and enrolled their children in the Emery Street School. She joined Liberty Baptist Church at an early age. Betty loved traveling. After moving to Bronx, New York, Betty united with the First Corinthian Baptist Church of Harlem, New York. She loved the Lord and was active in her church. Betty was a great decorator and loved shopping. Cooking was a joy for her and being able to share a meal with those she knew and loved was a special highlight. She was a member of the Dalton Eastern Star Chapter #230 O. E. S.—P. H. A.

Betty leaves her loving and devoted family to cherish the memories they shared together; children, Chief Apostle Bruce L. Weaver, Velina Weaver, Wayman Quinn, and Anthony Quinn; brothers, Ezekiel Weaver, Jr. and John Weaver; sister, Arnetter Weaver; grandchildren, Kelly Monique, Shannon, Bruce Jr., Corwin, and Jennifer Weaver and Shaunda Daniels; ten great-grandchildren and seven great great-grandchildren; godchildren, Tina Wiggs, Cherelle Barnhill, and Fabian Barnhill; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
