A Brief Look At The Life Of Our Mother Mary Katherine Buford

The life of Mary Katherine Buford can't be told in a few words. She was a strong woman. Mary received her early childhood education in Dalton, GA. She was a graduate of Emery Street School, but she didn't stop there. Mary became a licensed LPN. Her love for people was evident as she worked a long career as a nurse. Mary retired as a Nurse Supervisor at Central State Hospital. Mary was born March 5, 1935 to the late Warren Jones and Georgia Mae Bates. Her earthly life ended on Monday, February 8, 2021. She was preceded by her parents, brothers, Melvin and Joseph Jones; a sister, Janice Mays, and nephews.

Mary was a long time nurse, but her life was filled with much more. She loved the Lord. She was a co-founder of the Living Word of God Church in Milledgeville, GA. She was a Matron and served on the Mothers Board Ministry at New Hope Baptist Church. Mary, the nurse, a woman who loved the Lord was also very active in the community. She served on the Emery Street School Planning Committee, and a member of the Concerned Citizens. She was a member of the Womans Community Club. Her activity in the community earned her a key to the city, which was presented by Mayor David Pennington. Mary loved her family. She enjoyed the family dinners, the hugs from her grands, great grands, and great-great grands, and supporting them in their choices in life. Mary was and will always be held close to the hearts of those she knew and loved.

Those left to cherish her love and memories, son, Malcolm (Valeria) Fain of Dalton, GA; daughters, Cynthia Johnson of Milledgeville, GA, Sheila Dennard, and Janice Fain both of Dalton, GA; grandchildren, Scottie Fain, Tamekia (Deron) Lovette, Tristan (Ashley) Fain, Gerrick (Sandy) Johnson, Gericka (Johnny) Moore, Roderick Freeman, John "Trey" Dennard, III, Zachriell Beckham, and Jashia Adams; 16 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren; brother, Vollie (LaChrisia) Macon of Chicago, Illinois; sisters-in-law, Shirley Jones of Atlanta, GA, and Blanche Jones of Mt.
