Forever In My Heart

*Memories of you seem just like yesterday.
Mowing grass, riding blasting your music,
so many that I'll keep on replay.
I thought so highly of you,
so much that I made you immortal.
Knowing you're not here is what has me troubled.
Although you're gone, you'll live forever in my heart.
Only time will keep us apart.
Before I say my goodbyes I need you to know,
you played a big role and you're someone's hero.
Until we meet again, I love you Daddy Leon!*

Premis*

Honoring Our Beloved

Mr. Leon "Brother" Scott, Jr.

Today, we are here to say farewell to "Brother", "Daddy", "Daddy Leon" and "Friend". He was a man who loved his family and enjoyed having them around. Leon was born October 31, 1939 to the late Leon Frank Scott, Sr. and Willie Mae Scott Anthony. He is preceded by his parents, sister, Annie Brown, and brother, Jerry Scott.

Leon was a graduate of A. C. Carter High School. He joined New Bethel Baptist Church at an early age. A man who was an avid lover of cars. Leon loved landscaping and enjoyed listening to music. He put God first and was always willing and ready to help those in need. But when it came to his family, his love was unmeasurable. Even as his health was failing, the sight of his family coming to visit, the hugs he received, and the sound of "I love you" filled his heart. He was a man of grace and understanding.

He is survived by his loving family, sons, Gabriel Scott and Kirk Jackson; daughters, Wendy Scott and Penny (George) Jackson Williams; loved and devoted sister, Sheraldine (James) Miller; grandchildren, Premis (Bryan) Scott Rainwater, Sasha Scott, Irish (Morrie) Coats Wells, Titus Jackson, Dantaveius Jett, and Treas Jackson; great-grandchildren, Talia, Ezmun, Zayden, Leviticus, Javen, SeNailah, Bryana, Octavious, Dantazeious, Jr., and Malachi; ; uncle, Bobby Martin; devoted god-nieces, Cydni White, Fecia Watkins, Flecia Brown, Kynsli Watkins and Candis (Kirk) Davis; great-great nephew, Isaac Cordle, Kingston Davis, and Sterling Davis; devoted cousin, Shamel Jackson; beloved nieces and nephews, Disica Scott Lewis, Jerika Scott, and Jared Scott, Cantrell Smith, Casey Smith; and special cousins, Peaches, Shaddy, Tara, Kippi, and Tuffy; host of other loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
