James Lawrence was a man who loved the Lord. His faith was evident in the way he walked, talked, prayed and praised. James worked hard and loved deeply. His integrity, honesty and kindness were extended to all he met. James' legacy as a man of God will live on in our hearts, memories and in our actions when we love one another with the same sincerity he displayed.

He Carried It All For Me

He carried me through my birth,
when he put me on His earth.
He carried the burdens of life.
He carried my worries at night.
He carried my sins each day.
He carried me when I wouldn't pray.
He carried me when I went astray.
He carried me on the highway.
He carried me when I was wrong,
when He could have took me on.
He carried me to the light,
so I could get it right.
He carried it all for me
He died on Calvary.
