I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.
God wanted me now, He set me free.
- Lovingly submitted by the family -*

Mr. Jackie Ray Robinson "Smookey"

Jackie Ray Robinson was born on March 21, 1948 to the late Eddie and Robbie McIntire Robinson in Chattanooga, (Hamilton County), Tennessee. After a long battle with cancer, Jackie quietly went to rest on June 4 th , 2019 at Erlanger Medical Center with his family by his side. Jackie grew up in Cohutta, Georgia along side his brother Michael and graduated from North Whitfield High School.

Jackie enjoyed carpentry, working on cars, boating, and fishing, but his favorite hobby of them all was fishing in his pond. Mr. Robinson loved family gatherings and grilling along with his partaking in spirits. He retired as a truck driver

Later in life, as his health started to decline, he loved spending time with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was liked and enjoyed by the health professionals at Erlanger Medical Center. He often made them laugh by making jokes about being the "famous" Jackie Robinson. His joy was infectious and his lively spirit kept everyone on their toes.

Jackie rests now with his parents, Eddie Robinson and Robbie McIntire Robinson Preston, grandparents, Arthur McIntire and Gladys McIntire, godparents / aunt and uncle, Henry and Betty Baker, sister, Ann Hughley, and grandson, Loren Blake Smith.
