May the Work I've Done Speak For Me

May the work I've done speak for me,
When I'm resting in my grave;
There is nothing that can be said,
May the work I've done speak for me.

May the life I lived speak for me.
When the best I try to live,
My mistakes He will forgive,
May the life I lived speak for me.

May the service I gave speak for me,
When I've done the best I can
And my friends don't understand.
May the service I gave speak for me

The work I've done it seems so small,
Sometimes it seems like, seems like nothing at all,
But when I stand before my God,
I want to hear Him say, "Well Done,"
May the work I've done speak for me.

LOVING REFLECTIONS

Mother Annie Mae Hill

The loving spirit of Mother Annie Mae Hill left our presence on August 11, 2019 to assume her place with our Heavenly Father. Mother Hill was born September 3, 1927, the youngest of four children, to the late Mr. Barney Hill, Sr. and Mrs. Mary Alice Quinn Hill.

She attended Emery Street School in Dalton, and early in life, Mother Annie Mae joined Bethel A.M.E. Church, where she would remain a lifelong member. She was actively involved in her church, serving as a Church Mother and in the choir, amongst other auxiliaries. She possessed an unwavering faith in God.

Remaining steadfast and loyal, Mother Hill dedicated over 30 years of employment to Aladdin Carpet. After retirement, she spent much of her time with her children & grandchildren, who she loved dearly. She loved to cook, and on Fridays she would fry fish, and on Sundays her special meal was always chicken and rice. In her spare time, she enjoyed listening to gospel music, crossword puzzles, watching T.V., and softball.

In addition to her parents, Annie was preceded in death by her brothers, Alfred Hill, Sr. and Barney Hill, Jr., son, James David “Buckey” Hill, and a dear friend, James Albert Austin. Remaining in her loving remembrance are her family, sons, Johnathan (Michelle) Hill, Charles (Christine) Hill, Ted (Lisa) Hill, Sr.; special granddaughter, Joenice Hill, of Dalton, Georgia; daughter-in-law, Savonna Hill of Chattanooga, Tennessee; thirteen other loving grandchildren, Keyanna Page, Ted Hill, Jr., Clifton Hill, Kajhun Hill, Kashif Hill, Stacy Bonds, Tracy Brabson, Jackie Washington, Robbie Washington, Shedrick Walker, Denise Walker, Ellissa McHenry; thirty great grandchildren; ten great great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends. Her love and strength will forever live in the hearts of her family and friends.
