

To Those I Love

When I am gone, release me, let go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears;
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love; you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it is time I travel on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call me and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
And if you listen within your heart, you will hear
All my love around you, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
We'll meet in Heaven around God's throne.

Expression of Gratitude
In our hour of sorrow, we have witnessed the love and friendship of our many friends. In gratitude and appreciation, we wish to thank you for all acts of kindness shown, including phone calls, food, prayers, visits, and whatever the part shown during the passing of our loved one, Sadie. There is a saying... People will forget what you did... They may forget what you said... But they will never forget how you made them feel. May God bless you with an abundance of his blessings.

A SERVICE OF LOVE
CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

MRS.
Sadie
LOVE BARRETT
Given to Us Given to God
July 23, 1935 July 1, 2022

II Timothy 4:7-8
"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

I Thessalonians 4:14-18

“For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which prevent them which are asleep. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.”

REFLECTIONS OF LIFE OF MRS. SADIE LOVE BARRETT

On Friday evening, July 1, 2022, angels surrounded the bed of Mrs. Sadie Love Barrett at MUSC Kershaw Health Medical Center in Camden, SC. She answered her Heavenly Father’s voice and departed from this earthly world, from labor to reward, entering a home with many mansions not made with hands. Sadie, a native of Liberty Hill, SC, was the daughter of the late Ross and Margaret McDow Love.

Sadie accepted Christ at an early age and joined Beaver Creek Baptist Church. She relocated to Stamford, CT, where she joined Faith Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church. She was a faithful member of the United Choir. Sadie met and married Thomas E. Barrett on July 29, 1976. They were married for almost 46 years. Sadie and Thomas moved to Eagle Springs, NC, where she joined Galilee Missionary Baptist Church in Taylortown, NC.

Sadie had a beautiful smile. She was an excellent cook. Her family and friends looked forward to her delicious meals. In her pastime, she enjoyed watching Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. She loved her church family and friends, whom she made many along the way. But, most of all, she loved her family. Sadie’s physical presence will be greatly missed, but her memories will dwell in the hearts of her family and friends forever.

Sadie was preceded in death by three brothers, Willie, Johnny, and Edroy Love; two sisters, Henry Mae James and Ora Lee Love; and a stepson, Timmy Barrett.

Sadie leaves to cherish precious memories: her husband, Thomas E. Barrett of Eagle Springs, NC; one daughter, Sharon Love (Alava) of Camden, SC; two sons, Earlon Marquette Love (LaDeva) of Petersburg, VA, and Eddie Love (Shakia) of Stockbridge, GA; one stepdaughter, Deborah Barrett of Stamford, CT; twelve grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; two special cousins whom she acknowledged as her sisters, Margaret McDow, affectionally known as “My Margaret” of Liberty Hill, SC, and Annie Mae Dobson of Buffalo, NY; and a host of loving and dedicated nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A Prayer from Mom

Loving God,
Bless my family with your love. Guard them from all danger and harm;
Deliver them from anger that leads to division; empower them to forgive as we have been forgiven; and send them into the world to witness your love and grace; in the name of Jesus Christ

I pray.
Amen

Miss Me, but Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared.
Miss me, but let me go,
For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan—
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.*
