

Obituary

NEAL REDD was born on April 28, 1960 at Providence Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the son of Nathaniel W. Redd and Mae Redd. Neal was a devoted father, grandfather, brother and loyal son, he peacefully departed this life on April 14, 2020.

Neal gained knowledge through Baltimore City Public Schools. Attending Baltimore Polytechnic Institute in 1974. He developed into an accomplished writer. He would go on to be awarded "Maryland's Best", a statewide writing competition. Neal graduated from Forest Park High School in 1978.

Neal entered the Baltimore Fire and Rescue Institute in 1982 and in 1984 became a Baltimore City Firefighter. After 15 years of dedication and bravery, Neal decided to change careers. In 2000 he began driving for East Penn Manufacturing. Becoming one of their most reliable and dependable drivers. Neal took pride in his work and was awarded for 15 years of outstanding service from East Penn. He would later retire in 2020.

Neal was a lover of music, family and friends. He loved cooking for his family and telling a good story. Neal always had a hunger for knowledge. Inspiring his children and grandchildren to be tenacious, hardworking and fair.

He leaves to cherish his legacy: his mother, Mae Redd; a son, Brandon Redd; daughter, Tiffany Redd Powell; granddaughter, Ahrian Powell; grandson, Chase Powell; stepdaughter, Tiana Thrower; life partner, Patricia Johnson; two brothers, Nathaniel (Ronnie) Redd and Quentin Redd; three nephews, Matthew Redd, Samuel Redd, and Maxwell Redd; one sister-in-law, Melanie Redd; and a host of loving cousins, other relatives and friends.

BENEDICTION

RECESSIONAL

"There are no tears in heaven
Nor grief of any kind
I leave this final tear drop
to those I left behind.
Though absent from my body
I'm present with the Lord
The joy of my salvation
is now my full reward."

To Neal,

Rest In Peace my love,
Until we meet again.
Miss you so much!

Ms. Trish

~A Fallen Limb~

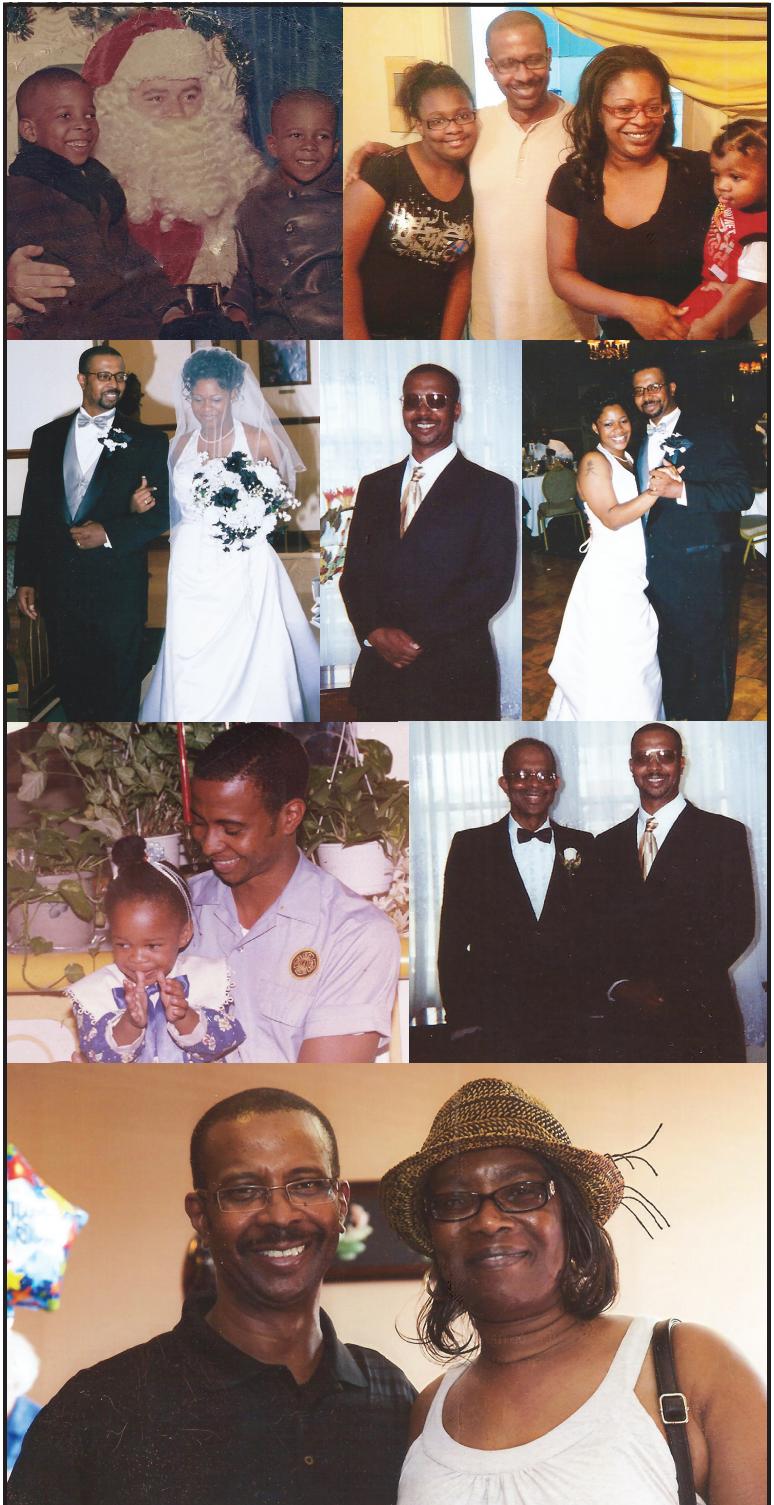

A limb has fallen from the family tree ..
I hear a voice that whispers "Grieve not for me"..
Remember the best times the laughter, the songs ..

The good I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage I'm counting on you ..
Keep on smiling the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease my soul is at rest ..
Remembering all, how I was truly blessed.
Continue traditions no matter how small ..
Go on with your lives don't stare at the wall.
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin ..
Until that fine day we're together again.

Lovingly Submitted
