

Remember Me

*Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.
Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.*

*I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.*

*I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.*

*Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.*

*I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.*

Lois Mae Boxley was born on November 5, 1932, to the late Rufus and Francis Culley, in Stafford, Virginia. She entered into a peaceful rest on December 26, 2018. She was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Elder L. Boxley, to that union eight children were born. Lois dedicated her life to taking care of her family, friends, and anyone else that needed her help. She found joy in helping others. On holidays you could find her in the kitchen making chocolate cakes, apple and sweet potato pies for everybody. Her home was always open to everyone who needed a plate of food or a place to sleep.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, four sons: Warren, Robert, William, and Richard Boxley, granddaughter: Valerie Boxley, two sisters; Jean Boxley, and Gerldine Brown. Lois leaves to cherish her loving memories to: her daughter, Barbara (Ralph) of Woodbridge; three sons, Vivian (Darlene) Boxley of Spotsylvania, Clarence Boxley of Stafford and David Boxley of Spotsylvania; six grandchildren, a devoted great grandson whom she raised Mario Boxley and seven more great grandchildren; three sisters-in-law; Ester Strother, of Stafford, Lorraine Alsop, of Stafford and Wilmae White, of Fredericksburg; one brother-in-law; Leonard Boxley, of Fredericksburg and a host of nieces, nephew, cousins and friends.

Recessional

Almighty God, we bless Thee that, though we are always dying, yet we cannot die:
Thou hast given us immortality in our Lord Jesus Christ, and though the flesh must fall into the grave, Yet shall our spirits rise and praise Thee, in other worlds, duration without end.
This is our hope.
