Acknowledgements

The family of Rayment L. Derricott would like to say "Thank you" for all acts of kindness rendered to us in our hour of bereavement. We would also like to thank the staff of Laurel Regional Hospital, Cherry Lane Nursing Center and Raquel Donnell. May God bless each of you.

THE BATTLE IS OVER

Quietly you suffered and endured the pain.

Often wondering how much, your weakened body could sustain.

*You fought a long fight, but knowing the battle was not yours alone
You turned it over to our Lord and he graciously called you Home.*

*Now, you're off the battlefield, with your mind at ease and your soul at peace.
You've gone on to glory and all your troubles have ceased.*

*You've made us laugh, You've made us cry,
You've given us many lasting memories to remember you by.*

*In our hearts you will forever remain, for as a father, grandfather, brother, uncle.
We could not have asked for a more caring, loving or great man.*

We love you and will forever miss you.

The Obituary

On Wednesday, January 2, 2019, Raymond L. Derricott entered into eternal rest. He was one of eleven children born on May 8, 1934 to the late Clarence and Elver Derricott. He was married to the late Lucy Jane Derricott and to this union, six children were born.

He attended the public schools of Hanover County, Virginia, where he graduated in 1953 from John M. Gandy High School.

He was employed by Ashland Roller Mills, now Ashland Milling Co., from approximately 1958 to 1978. He was then employed by Springhill Nursery where he developed a love for plants and greenery. He was also employed by NAPA, as a driver, until his health failed.

Raymond loved to tell jokes and was always willing to share his humor to all he came in contact with. He was the life of the bus trips on his many excursions to Atlantic City and other venues.

As his health continued to fail and he was no longer able to communicate effectively, this was not a worry to him. He had his own AT&T operator, Faye, who lived across from him. He would walk over to her house several times a day, every day, with his cellphone in hand and she knew he would say, “call Benny or call my daughter.”

He was preceded in death by his wife, Lucy Jane Derricott, and daughter, Tracey Lee Derricott. He leaves to cherish his memories, daughter, Sandra (Luther) Fleming of Odenton, Maryland, four sons, Randy (Cachetta) of Parkland, Florida, Robbie (Glenda) of Richmond, Virginia, Vincent of Ashland, Virginia, and Marvin, Sr. (Patty) of Richmond, Virginia; nine grandchildren, Alisha, Candice, Traesha, Marvin, Jr (“Todd”), Randy, Jr. (“Craig”), Shawn, Willie, Brittany and Joshua; eleven great-grandchildren, two sisters, Thelma Mack of Norfolk, Virginia, and Patricia Cary of Ruther Glen, Virginia, sister-in-law, Helen Derricott of Ruther Glen, Virginia, devoted friend, Helen Fox, of Ruther Glen, Virginia, and a host of nieces, among them, Delores Derricott (“Peanut”), whom he helped raised, nephews, other family members and friends.
