

My Wife

Dear Wife In Heaven

*My lips cannot tell how I miss you;
My heart cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how I miss you;
In a home that is lonesome today.*

*The pearly gates where open;
A gentle voice said "Come",
And with farewells unspoken;
You gently entered home.*

2 Corinthian 1:4

"Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God."

Our Mother

Although we cannot hear your voice or see your smile anymore,
 You walk beside us still just as you did before.
 You are listening to our stories and you wipe away our tears,
 You'll wrap your arms around us and understand our fears.

It's just you aren't visible to see with human eyes,

We will talk with you in silence and your spirit will reply.

*We'll feel the love that you have for us and we'll hear you in our heart,
 You've left your human body, but our souls will never part.*

Love, Ron, Meekie and Keiona

Her Life

Janet Jones Carter daughter of William T. Jones and the late Cora Jones peacefully departed this life on August 22, 2019.

Janet was born on March 29, 1960 in Ashland, VA. She attended Richmond City Public Schools and graduated from John Marshall High School in 1978. At an early age she gave her life to Christ and joined Greenwood Baptist church. Where she became a member of the Gospellettes (that later known as the Voices of Inspiration) started by her mother and sister Mae Winston.

After she moved to eastern Henrico to live with her husband Lindsay, she worked at Children's Hospital for number of years. She later joined God's Miracle Church where she would become the Praise Team leader. Eventually she settled into a job at Universal Health Services where she has remained for the past five years.

She was preceded in death by her sister Darlene J. Bradley. Left to cherish her memory is her devoted husband Lindsay Carter Jr.; daughters Tameka Jones and Keiona McBride (Demetrius); son Teron Carter; brothers William D. Jones (Evelyn) and Darryl T. Jones (Katrina); grandchildren Tavaris, Shamira, Rahmell, and Emery; five step-children Trey, Thomas, Marilyn, Detria, and Nicole; ten step-grandchildren; three sisters-in-laws two brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

She was a devoted, loving, kind, and God-fearing wife, mother, grandma, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. She is, was and continues to be loved by everyone.
