God Saw...

*God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed your loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be Thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain
The weary nights are past
The ever patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.*

Obituary

Cynthia Tuck Champion was born June 18, 1963 to the late Selma and Curley Tuck, Jr. in Warren County, North Carolina. She gained her heavenly home and entered into eternal rest on Monday, March 1, 2021 at her residence.

Cynthia who was affectionally called “Faye” by family and friends received her former education from the Warren County Public Schools System. She was a proud member of the 1981 graduating class of John Graham High School.

At an early age, she confessed Christ as her personal Savior and joined Cooks Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. Later in life, she united with Providence Christian Church where she remained a faithful member until her death. She was dutiful by serving as President of the Young Women Ministry, member of the Ushers Ministry and her favorite- the choir. Cynthia loved to sing.

She was a very caring, giving a loving person. The qualities opened up career opportunities that she could freely express her love for others. She was employed with Murdoch Development Center and Learning Services.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two brothers, Calvin Alston, Sr. and John “Slim” Alston; one sister Deborah “Dohicky” Alston.

Her memories will be forever cherished by three loving sons ,Derrick Tuck, Derrious Tuck, Sr.(Jatera), and Damon Tuck (Whitney) all of Raleigh, NC; Five grandchildren, Azaria Tuck, Derrious Tuck, Jr., Destiny Tuck, Kingley Tuck and soon to be Trinity Tuck; three brothers, Curley Tuck III, (Shirley) of Hinesville, Ga, Charles Tuck of Henderson, NC, and Daniel Jackson of Durham, NC; one sister in-law, Pamela Alston of Henderson, NC; three aunts, Bernice Kersey, Elizabeth Braxton both of Norlina, NC and Alice Parks of Warrenton, NC; three uncles, Willie Alston, Willie Alexander both of Norlina, NC and Clarence Williams of Richmond, VA; three special friends/sisters, Diane Williams, Kesha Alston and Elizabeth Brame; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousin, co-workers, and friends.

Broken Chain

WE LITTLE KNEW
the day that God was going
TO CALL YOUR NAME. IN LIFE WE LOVED YOU
O dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our HEARTS TO LOSE YOU BUT YOU DIDN'T GO
alone, for part of us went with you the day God CALLED YOU HOME. YOU LEFT US PEACEFUL memories, your love is still our guide, and although WE CANNOT SEE YOU, YOU ARE ALWAYS AT OUR side. Our family chain is broken and nothing
SEEMS THE SAME, BUT AS GOD CALLS US
one by one, the chain will link again. O
