When I'm Gone

By Mrs. Lyman Hancock

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken:
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay,
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

Obituary

Christopher Deon Plummer affectionally known as “Crittterball”, was born on April 29, 1980, to John Bullock and Mary Plummer in Durham, North Carolina. God dispatched his angels on Monday, October 18, 2021, and called him to be with His master in Heaven.

Christopher spent his childhood in the Oine community where he loved playing sports, especially t-ball, basketball, and karate. Even more than sports he enjoyed spending time with his friends and family, especially playing with his cousins. He was loved and known throughout the community for his outgoing personality and infectious laughter. Whether you were from Oine or across the Virginia border, there weren’t too many people that didn’t know “Crittterball”. Whenever you saw him, he would always have that sly grin on his face.

He was educated in the Warren County Public School system and joined the workforce at the age of 18. He worked at JP Taylor in Henderson, NC for about 15 years after which he worked at Elberta Crate and Box Company in Warrenton, NC. During this time, he became a big brother to his younger siblings and took pride in giving his mom a hand in helping to take care of them. Family was the most important thing to him.

There wasn’t anyone that ever had anything negative to say about Chris. He was known for being a no non-sense type of person but was also the sweetest and most humble person you could ever meet. He was never hesitant about voicing his opinion especially when it came to sports or music. You couldn’t say a thing about his Buffalo Bills and please didn’t let him hear you say Biggie was better than 2pac. Music was truly his first love, and he had a collection of over 100 CDs to prove it. It was his way of escaping anything he may have been going through. Even though his size and demeanor may have said “tough guy”, he was truly a gentle giant. His motto was simple, “give people their flowers while they were here to enjoy them.”

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents John Wesley and Luegenger Bullock, maternal grandparents Joseph and Dorothy Plummer, and two aunts Berlinda Burchette and Jannie Baskett.

Christopher leaves to cherish his memories his father, John Bullock (Ellen); his mother, Mary Plummer (Joseph); one sister, Shamika Plummer; one brother, Corey Jennings; his step grandmother, Adele Plummer; nine Aunts, Mary Brown (James), Virginia Hudgins (Arthur), Phyllis Bullock, Sherry Bullock, Barbara Newell, Helen Baskerville, Evelyn Harrison, Rosa Shearin, and Josephine Plummer (Toby); four Uncles, Wesley Bullock (Isabelle), Walter Bullock, George Baskerville (Ruby), and John Plummer (Patricia); numerous first cousins, Andrew, Darlene, Christopher, Angela, Sherry, Michael, Keisha, Ebony, Zenobia, Michael, Gabrielle, Christopher, Angela, Leslie, Shawanna, Jalisa, Travis, Quinton, Taneshia, Justin, Lisa, Keisha, Joshua, Jeffrey, DJ, Quatrel, Latasha, Quentin, Wayne, Neil, Luticia, Dell, Damon, Cyteese, Gerald, and Rodriquez; along with a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.

Cuzo, Son, brother, Friend, Nephew!!!

Our world stopped today

Everything stood still

We know this was God’s will

Your time

In due time we will all begin to heal

This is hard to believe

Like a thief in the night

Now we all grieve

So many tears

This can’t be real

Life without you

seems so unreal

Nothing changes here today

Just your soul went away

We can’t believe our journey together ends here today

We are going to miss you

Never going to forget you

Our love for be you will never end

We know absent from the body means present with the Lord

What a beautiful gift

You both have received

Things will never be the same

We can’t believe God called your name

You gained your wings

Fly high

Baby boy

Spread your wings

You are Free now

Soar

To your heavenly home

With many loved ones we know you are not alone

We pray you Rest in Peace

Crittter our love for you will never cease.
