A Fallen Limb

*A Limb has fallen from the Family Tree
But I keep hearing her voice that says*

“Grieve not for me.”

*Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs,
The good life I lived while I was strong.*

Continue my heritage. I'm counting on you.

To keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

Continue our traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall.

I miss you all dearly, but keep up your chin until the day comes

when we are together again.

The Obituary

The only child of Kim Greene Hubbard and Curtis Tyrone Hubbard, Tiera Nicole Hubbard entered this life on March 14, 1981, in Raleigh, North Carolina, and she was a blessing from that day through October 24th, 2021, when she departed this life from the house where she was being attended by her devoted mother, her children and other faithful family members. She was introduced to Christ early in her life and was baptized at Bethlehem Baptist Church—and it was a crowning event in her life to bring her own three children to be baptized in the very same church.

She was educated in the Wake County Public School System, graduating from Southeast Raleigh High School in the class of 1999. Immediately after graduation from high school, she enrolled at North Carolina State University for one year, and ultimately received an on-line Associate degree from Ashford University.

Always active and full of energy, Tiera never shied away from any job she found interesting. She wanted to enter the work world long before she was old enough to do so, and declared herself to be an entrepreneur long before many of us knew what an entrepreneur was. Tiera knew it meant working at something she enjoyed doing, doing it well, and growing from the experience. She started her first job at the age of 14, volunteering at Tarboro Road Community Center. At the age of 15, she was overjoyed to acquire a worker's permit because it allowed her to begin working with the City of Raleigh Summer Youth Program. She worked with the City of Raleigh Softball Complex during high school, and after graduation for Bright Horizons Family Solutions of Cary. Added to this list was her tenure with the City of Raleigh Transportation Department and, later, Paparazzi Jewelry. She enjoyed making videos, doing online sales with Home Shopping Network, where she had many clients. She proudly framed the first five dollars that she earned from her first online sale.

Tiera cherished her time with her beloved children and family, especially at Thanksgiving and Christmas when they were all together. A favorite Christmas pastime was trimming the tree at Aunt Sallie's while listening to Charles Brown's "Wrap Yourself in a Christmas Package".

At home, Tiera was totally committed to her children. She wore a mantle of support and protection that they could always depend on. A faithful mother, a dutiful daughter, niece, cousin, and friend, she was a bright light in so many of our lives.

In addition to her grandparents, James Ervin Montague and Mary Ruth and Ronald Hubbard, and her great grandparents, James and Cora Greene and Cary and Irene Montague, she was preceded in death by her uncles, Ronald Hubbard and Lawrence Hubbard. Among family left to cherish their memories of her love and kindness are her parents, Kim and Curtis Hubbard; her Godmother, Cynthia Adams; her children, Jason Alexander Johnson, Don'shea Levonne Johnson, and Kirena Elise Hubbard; her grandmother, Maggie Delores Greene; her aunts and uncles, Sandra Townes, Carol Williams (Sammy), Keisha Greene, Aaron Greene (Carla), Connie Hendricks, Charlene Montague-Thompson, James Ervin Montague Jr. (Renee), Derek Hubbard (Cindy), Richard Hubbard, Joy Hubbard Jones (James), six great aunts, three great uncles, and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
