"God Saw"

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

-The Family.

Acknowledgements

*Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or sat quietly in your chair
Perhaps you sent lovely flowers, if so, we saw it there;
perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day;
Whatever deed done, great or small, the family thanks you for it all.
The family would like to give special thanks to the health care assistants that worked diligently in caring for our father.

Obituary

Royster Fields affectionally known as “Jack” was born on August 14, 1943, in Warrenton, North Carolina, to the late Walter B. and Portia R. Fields. He gained his heavenly wings on March 13, 2022 at his residence.

Jack was educated in the Warren County school system. After school, Jack relocated to New York where he became the mechanic for Mr. Softee Ice Cream Company for many years.

Jack decided to move back home to North Carolina and was united in marriage to Lois Decker Fields. Everyone who knew Jack could say he was a fun and loving person that was a hard worker. During his spare time, Jack enjoyed hunting and fishing.

In addition to his parents, Jack was preceded in death by his wife, Loise Decker Fields and three brothers, Walter Fields, Williams Fields, and Leon Fields.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his children, Kendra Fields, Rosalind Mathis, Francis Johnson (Jessica), Carmen Thompson (Pedro), Theresa Williams (Travis), Owen Raymond, III (Orquidia), Natalie Cargill, Amelia Williams (Jeff), Melsun Decker, LaTonya Decker and Tyrell Decker; twenty- three grandchildren; twenty great grandchildren’ four brothers, Kenny Fields, Glenn Fields, Plummer Fields, and Calvin Fields; two sisters, Betty Sharper and Laura Davis; one aunt, Elizabeth Richardson; his nephew who was like his son, Herbert Bullock, Jr. (Sally) and a host of other relatives and friends.
