

*When my time on earth is done, and I am no more
Don't remember how I found death knocking on my door
Don't bother with the details of how I met my demise
Don't worry for my soul or let tears flow from your eyes.*

*No when I go, you rest assured that I am in a better place
I have walked on golden streets and seen my Savior face
I have hugged my fathers neck and seen my granny, too
I will bask in God's glorious love as I wait for you.*

*Remember how I loved the Lord and how I sang for Him
Tell my family left behind how much I still love them
Share stories of my silly side and laughter I have caused
Don't weep for me, my last request is that you take pause.*

*To check your heart and soul condition,
have you made your peace with God?*

*I pray you all will do His will and reach others while you trod.
So that your smiling face I'll see when your earthly race is run
Don't cry for me, but celebrate, I am forever with the Son.*

-The Family.

Mary Ann Davis was born on June 10, 1961 in Warren County, North Carolina to the late Lewis Davis, Sr. and Dorothy Spruill Davis as one of six children. She departed this life on October 20, 2022 at Pruitt Health in Durham, North Carolina at the age of 61.

Mary Ann was educated in the Warren County public schools system. She was a proud native of Warren County who brought fun and life to all those who knew her. She lived a very extra ordinary lifestyle as a Warren County resident and was one of the humblest person some has ever met. She would do anything for anyone. In fact, she would literally give you the shirt off her back. Mary Ann hid her acts of generosity, but many have been in a position that allowed them to see her acts of selflessness. Her heart was big, her energy even bigger and she had a knack for making people laugh and putting a smile on their face. With much sassiness and liveliness, she loved to travels the roads of Warrenton: singing, cleaning and conversing with family, friends, and new faces.

Mary Ann gave her life over to God a long time ago. She attended and was a member Oak Chapel AME Church in Warrenton, North Carolina; later attending Warrenton Baptist Church. She was a very spiritual person and served faithfully for many years. One of her favorite quotes was “Give it to God”.

In addition to her parents, Mary Ann was preceded in death by her sister, Belinda Davis.

She leaves to cherish her wonderful memories, one daughter, Priscilla Darden (Shakil); two sons, Damion Dunson and Joseph Macklin; four grandchildren, Amarius Hicks, Messiah Davis, Aaryn Davis and Nora Dunson; four brothers, Lewis Davis, III, Pete Davis, Thomas Davis, and Napoleon Davis; five devoted nieces, Mikki Davis (Carlos), Nikema Jones, Regina Jones, Olivia Braxton, and Angelica Mills; two nephews, Tyrone Davis and Jamal Davis; one special friend, Andrew Hunt; along with a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
