REFLECTIONS OF OSCAR W. PERRY JR.

Oscar W. Perry was the best father a son could ever ask for. He was a cancer survivor and a humble man of GOD. Oscar was born on July 22, 1936 to Oscar Perry Sr and Ms. Jessie Perry in Gainesville, FL. He has two sons. Dr. Antony Perry of New York and Mark Perry of Orlando. He has two lovely granddaughters, Morgan and Madison Perry. Oscar went on to glory on November 12th. He was preceded in death by brothers Ermitt of the Bronx, Alexander of Jacksonville, Glenwood of Gainesville, George of Gainesville, Edward of Jacksonville, and sister Nancy Lee of Micanopy. Uncle Jun-ior, as his nieces and nephews called him, graduated from the (FAMU) Florida A&M School of Pharmacy and served four years in the United States Air Force. He was a dedicat-ed pharmacist for over 30 years at Sarasota Memorial Hos-pital, Manatee Memorial Hospital, Walgreens, Wal-Mart, and Eckerd Drugs. Oscar was an avid bowler and a diehard Florida Gator.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the Paths of right of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where ill stay.
Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong..
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me. It was just my time,
But I will see you someday on the other side.
Don't cry for me. I am not alone.
The angels are with me to welcome me home.
Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me. This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.
