

In Her Own Words

I'm so glad you all came together on this day to celebrate my home going. I can't wait to see my Jesus. So, don't cry for me cause I am alright now! I pray to God that I will someday see all of you again. Jesus promised a new heaven and a new earth and I believe in his word. I love you and if you must stand for something, stand for Jesus, cause he is most certainly, worthy!

Lovingly signed,

Elaine Emily Phillips

In Appreciation

Mama Elaine asked that we thank her nurses from Hospice for their continued assistance and all the love they have shown her (so thank you so much on mama's behalf). Chuckey and Chenita would like to offer a special thanks to Mytrisia for all that she has done. Up or down, thick or thin, Trisia was always by mom's side to do whatever was needed, even if all she needed was a smile or warm hug. Like most families, we haven't always agreed on things, but know that we love you Trisia, dearly. We would like to express a note of thanks and appreciation to Enloe Mortuary. May God forever bless each of you.

Special Message to Mom from Chenita
Mom, I miss you and I just want to say that you were the very best mom I could ever ask for. You have been there for me like no other. I didn't visit as often as I should, but my love for you has then and will always remain strong and you will forever be in my heart.
Thank you for being my mom.

Obituary

Elaine Emily Phillips was born on May 1, 1934 in York, South Carolina to the late Lawrence and Annie Russell Phillips. She ended her journey on February 2, 2020 when God called her home.

Elaine attended Cleveland School here in Shelby and was employed by Century Furniture in Hickory, NC where she worked for 22 years until she retired. She enjoyed caring for her family and friends. She also enjoyed watching Victor Newman terrorizing everyone on "The Young & The Restless" every day. Elaine loved to talk whether she knew you or not and would tell stories of old and new happenings in the neighborhood. She had a warm sense of humor. Elaine attended church whenever her health permitted. Mama Elaine as she was so lovingly called by many will be missed dearly by us all and she will never be forgotten.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Sarah Martin, Mamie Phillips Jones, Mary R. Norris, June Lawrence Phillips and Lester Lee Phillips; one granddaughter, Alexis K. Lattimore; one nephew, Nathaniel Robertson.

She leaves to cherish her memory; one son, Chuckey Phillips and devoted daughter-in-law, Sylvia Phillips of Shelby; two daughters, Mytrisia Phillips of Shelby and Chenita Bowers of Cherryville, NC; two special grandchildren, Alexandria Phillips of the home and Tione'Haynes, whom she raised; one very close nephew, Bobby Robertson; one niece, Vanessa Robertson, who often visited; thirty-three great grandchildren; eight great-great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
