*God needed an angel!
God needed an Angel in heaven
To sit at the savior's feet
His choice must be the rarest
A lily pure and sweet
He gazed down from the might throne
Then stopped and picked the best
Our loving Emma was his chosen one
With Jesus, our blessed Emma is now at rest*

A Psalm of Life

Tell me not, in mournful numbers, life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers, and things are not what they seem.
Life is real! Life is earnest! And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest, was not spoken of the soul.
Not enjoyment, and not sorrow, is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each to-morrow find us farther than to-day.
Art is long, and Time is fleeting. And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating funeral marches to the grave.
In the world's broad field of battle, in the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle! Be a hero in the strife:
Trust no Future, how'er pleasant! Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,-act in the living Present! Heart within, and God's o'erhead!
Lives of great men all remind us we can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us footprints on the sands of time;
Footprints, that perhaps another, sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.
Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

On the morning of April 3, 2020, Emma Barrow Scott transitioned from this earth into the loving arms of our Lord in Heaven.

Emma was born on May 20, 1919 in Philomath, Georgia to Shadrach and Nancy Glenn Barrow. Emma was the sixth of twelve children. Emma lived in Philomath with her family which included her maternal great-grandmother, Caroline McQuaita until she was five years old. In 1924, Emma and her family moved to the Lattimore Farm in Boiling Springs, North Carolina. After arriving in Boiling Springs, Emma and her family joined Eskridge Grove Baptist Church Family and was the oldest member at the time of her death.

While growing up in Boiling Springs, Emma met the love of her life, Ambrose Scott and married him. After Emma and Ambrose married, Emma gave birth to their first child, Bettie Jean and moved to 409 Weathers Street in Shelby when Bettie was six months old. During the next few years, two more daughters were born, Magdalene (Madge) and Vernell. While raising her girls, Emma worked as a domestic in the office of Dr. Tilt. In 1954, Emma gave birth to her first son, Edwin Jerome (deceased) and two years later her last son/child, Ambrose Lbrae (deceased) was born. After the girls grew up and the boys were getting older, Emma started work at JP Stevens Mills and remained there for 5 years. Emma, then moved to Ora Mill and remained there for 15 years until she retired. Throughout her years of retirement, Emma was a devoted grandmother and great-grandmother during which she babysat two of her great-grand kids, Devin and Carla Scott.

Emma was one of the pioneer family members who started the Barrow-Scott Family Reunion which has been an annual family event for 38 years.

Emma was a Phenomenal Woman of God who was a prayer warrior for her family and friends.
