~ OBITUARY ~

Mrs. Laretta Castello Mungen White departed this life on Friday, May 1, 2020 at Atrium Health-Cleveland in Shelby. She was born in Passaic County, NJ on August 22, 1955 to the late James Allen and Caroline Moore Allen.

Laretta relocated to Shelby, NC in 1997. Always a hard working person, she held various employment positions throughout her lifetime and was currently employed with Wal-Mart in Shelby. Working was almost a hobby for her because she enjoyed it so much. She also enjoyed making people laugh. Her other pastimes included writing, jigsaw puzzles and collecting things which included various types of figures and coins from around the world.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by a sister, Regina Bradley and two aunts and two uncles.

Left to cherish precious memories are her husband, William White; two daughters, Jonetta Mungen of Shelby and Dolores White of NJ; one bonus son, William White, Jr. of Shelby; one brother, James Allen (Domina) of NJ; one sister, Archline Desamours of NJ; four grandchildren, Diamond Mungen, Dominique Black, Elyjah Strachan and Kyle Reynolds; one aunt, Rebecca Moore of NJ; a god-son, Zion Daley and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

There are no words that can be put together to form sentences that will describe you, or that will richly encompass the sum total of your being.
So, I use singular words hoping they will allow people to get a glimpse into the aura of who you were. A glimpse into the essence of a black woman who will forever be missed.
Love, all who knew you and the ones
who will only hear of your greatness.
