Navy Strong

*From hearing the cries and preparing for war
To meeting your wife and having children of four
To saying goodbye to the love of your life
Walking through heaven's gates with not an inch of strife.
From "Hey Monsters" to a fading smile.
To always being there and now gone for awhile*

Obituary

*"And God shall wipe away
all tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying; neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."
Rev. 21:4*

Mr. Charles Buddy Reese, 87, departed this life on Monday, December 21, 2020 at his residence in Shelby, NC. He was born on October 5, 1933 in Carnegie PA to the late George and Mary White Reese.

Charles was a U.S. Navy veteran serving during the Korean Conflict. After serving in the Navy, he became a professional Body Builder, traveling and winning several tournaments and trophies. Along with body building, he was employed with the U.S. Postal Service before retiring. After leaving school at an early age to help his parents economically, he returned and received his High School diploma in 1975 to show to his family the importance that education was essential.

He met his beloved wife Gladys at her sister's wedding and followed her back to Maryland until she said yes to marry him. Out of their union were four children born and they remained united in holy matrimony until her passing in 2017.

After rededicating his life to the Lord in 2018, Charles joined Wheat Creek Missionary Baptist Church in Rutherfordton, NC.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Gladys Marie Reese.
