

Forever Live

*....Truth be told I don't really compare myself to none
That ain't me being cocky I got some knowledge and confidence*

They never knew I was talented Never knew I would amount to this See I'm a different breed it ain hard to notice

*I don't see competition cause I never been a large opponent
Like my principal in the fifth I'm always Sharp on it
So listen to me kiddo
I do this with a purpose I love music just like Diddo*

Half of these n do it to say that they did it
I'm still rolling a Vegas I think about when I make it
When my momma wear a Muller
Take the money and start her school up
Prolly start her school up
Have a film like a family pic cheesing
Do my daddy up put him in something just like Jesus
Quay Chassidi and Grandma they gone get the same

A legend I was born to be A legend what I'm going to be

Obituary

Intro

Mr. Reginald Jajuan Reid also known as “Bougie” made his grand appearance on the world’s stage on February 16, 1994 in Cleveland County, NC as the only son of Reginald Warren Reid and Shannon Reid Gordon.

Performance

Jajuan was a very well-mannered and respectful young man who never met a stranger and showed kindness to everyone. He loved music and developed this love for music when he started playing drums at church when he was six years old. He had a whimsical sense of humor and a smile that would brighten up a room. His presence made you feel comfortable and the impact that he left you with gave you confidence that it was okay to think outside the box and pursue your dreams.

Jajuan was a high school graduate of Burns High School's class of 2012 and was a member of the Burns Bulldogs football team throughout high school. He attended Mars Hill College for one year and then returned home and began to work with individuals with disabilities. He later worked for Walmart Distribution and RSI Home Products. His greatest joy and accomplishment was when he became a father. He would proudly say, "Ima be a daddy". The birth of his son, Dajuan, changed his perception on life which motivated him to strive for a better life for his family in which he demonstrated through his music. He has written numerous songs such as Greatness, Universe and What I Thought, just to name a few.
