

For Isaiah

*My one and only son
The one who completed us
Strengthened us
I will cry because I miss you
Laugh because I hear you
Continue on because I love you
Remember all that we did do
Cherish every memory
Dream of all that could be
Stay strong for your sisters
We miss you every moment
We long for you each day
We'll love you always
My love for you will never fade
I can't wait to hold you again
See your beautiful smile
Hear your laughter
Until that day
I will cry because I miss you
Laugh because I hear you
Continue on because I love you
And take care of your sisters
We love you Isaiah
Love Always and Forever

Obituary

Mr. Isaiah Ra'Shawn Thomas was born on July 29, 2003 in Shelby, NC and departed this life on June 22, 2021 in Charlotte, NC. He was born with a contagious smile and he was always filled with laughter. Reared by his mother along with his three sisters, he was a helpful and respectful person who looked out for his family. Everyone who had the pleasure of meeting him knows him for his manners and ability to easily brighten your day. He was tall as a tree and loved the game of basketball. He was effortlessly great at the sport. Isaiah graduated from Bessemer City High School on May 28, 2021. He made us all very proud.

Those who have gone before him include his grandfather, Ralph James Thomas.

He is survived by his mother, Jessica Thomas McMiller (Trenton); his grandmother, Alice Logan Mosley (Walter); sisters, Alenzia Thurman, Dominique Degree and Nevaeh Thomas; uncle, James Lamonte Thomas and aunt, Crystal Logan Maddox (Terry). Isaiah was blessed to have a very large extended family of brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, a godmother and a godbrother who he loved and cherished.
