As you close your eyes
And come to rest
People will remember you
And all that you did best

As you come to your peace
And reach your final stop
In the highest of heavens
People will remember you
And all your many blessings

For a man of God such as you
A father, brother, son, and grandfather too
One who taught the word
To those in need
And one who was constantly
A friend indeed

We will miss your laughter and smile
For it was so infectious
That it's guaranteed to stay with us
For the longest of the while

So remember that as you close your eyes
And lay down to rest
That we are here
Remembering in our hearts
All that you did best
