

Weep Not

Weep not for me though I have gone into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will, but not for long.
Upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace, my soul's at rest.
There is no need for tears.
For with your love I was so blessed.
For all those many years.

There is no pain, I suffer not.
The fear is now all gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death.
But celebrate my life.

Obituary

Mr. Michael Laborn was born on July 20, 1961in Cleveland County and he transitioned on October 13, 2022 at Medstar Washington Hospital in Washington, DC. Michael was the son of the late Joe Thomas and the late Jesse Mae Ross.

Michael was highly skilled in monumental masonry and worked at Stone Memorials for over 35 years or more. Michael loved traveling, spending time with his family. He was a very jovial and his laugh came from the depths of his soul. You could not be around him and not feel uplifted. He loved the Lord wholeheartedly and lastly he was a die hard Dallas Cowboys fan. (inside joke Dad).

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sisters, Beverly Smith and Elizabeth Laborn; a brother, Marvin Laborn; nephews, Lauran Christopher Smith and Larry Laborn, Jr and a special friend, Katie Wilson.

He is survived by one daughter, Trina Michelle Byers of Gastonia, NC; one son, Michael Washington of Charlotte, NC; two sisters, Debra Galmer of Shelby and Jasmine Tammy Thomas (Gene) of Washington, DC; brothers, Larry Laborn (Virginia) and Benjamin Laborn both of Shelby; grandchildren, Jaleesia Tychelle Catlin, Tre’Quon Dontrez Catlin, Aniyah MaKayla Byers, Phalon Asharia Byers and Katie Ariel Byers; four additional grandchildren; two great-grandchildren, Ayanna and Kayden; special friend, Athena “Kay” Wilson and her children Claudia Veney, Rejineta Carroll and Antionette Weaver; one niece, Marquita Michael; two nephews, Joseph Michael and Jerry Thomas; his caregiver, Claudia Veney and a host of other relatives and friends.
