

HOMEGOING CELEBRATION OF LIFE

FOR

RICHARD LEE FEARS

Sunrise: June 2, 1948

Sunset: March 2, 2020

DON'T CRY

Don't cry, don't cry.

For I am safe here.

Don't cry, because I'm not there.

Don't cry, don't cry.

I am always with you.

Every step you take, everything you do.

Don't cry, don't cry.

I will always love you.

Don't cry, don't cry.

Be happy of my new place.

For me nor my love can be replaced.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Family of Richard Fears extends heartfelt thanks to everyone for their kind expressions of sympathy. The visits, phone calls and prayers have sustained us through our grief. May God continue to bestow His blessing upon all.

OBITUARY

“Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God”

- Matthew 5:8

On Monday, March 2, 2020 Richard Lee Fears, went on to Glory into eternal life. He was born June 2, 1948 to the late Lula Fears. Richard lived his life in the Greater Atlanta area and received his education in the Atlanta Public Schools System and attended Washington High School.

Richard loved God, often time talking about how good God has been to him. He spent a lot of time in the word and never forgot to pay his tithes to the church where he often attended.

He lived his life as a bachelor and loved all his family to the fullest. His joys included, spending time with his special friend Gilda and with his siblings, nieces, nephews, and brothers- in-law which were the focus of his love. Whenever time permitted, he enjoyed traveling. Richard loved living in Atlanta and did own a car and could drive but he enjoyed riding Marta Transit as his preferred way of traveling. His hobbies were riding Marta, shopping and wearing his fashionable clothing and yes, matching hats.

Richard retired from Hartsfield Jackson Airport after many years of service. His life and his purpose have been fulfilled. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Lula Bell Fears; sisters, Doris Diane Dawson (Levi Davis), Lillian Williams (Eddie Williams) and Lisa Robinson (Nathaniel Robinson); nephew, Levi Dawson. He leaves to cherish his memory a loving sister, Janice Brown (Willie Brown) of Lithonia, Ga; nephews, James, Eugene, Roderick, Zavian, and Eric, Nieces Sharon, Jocelyn, Carlisa and a host of great nieces, great nephews, and other relatives and friends.
