I FELT ANGELS

*My Master has called me,
for my task on earth is done.
He sent His Angels to tell me to my eternal home I must come.*

*So, I'm leaving you this statement to make matters easier for you.
It will help you make decisions about each thing that you must do.
Just in case your eyes are tear-filled
now that I've closed these eyes to rest, just remember Jesus loves you and He will help you stand the test.*

*Just in case your heart is wondering if I left earth feeling sad, please let it be known;
I was somewhat tired and weary,
and I longed for heaven, my home.
So my family and friends I was ready,
and before I left angels stood around my bed;
they were there to bring me comfort and relayed each prayer I said.
They gave me courage and contentment;
smooth my weary ladened brow,
kept my faith strong and undaunted
as I renewed my Christian vow.*

*So, don't weep for me, my loved ones,
for God's timing is perfect.
Just hold on to His promises,
hold on for Jesus' sake;
For you too will someday come this way,
just make sure to live in such a way that you can hear Him say, well done thou good and faithful servant
come and enjoy eternal rest.*
