

Rest in Peace

*You are not forgotten, my love
Nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last,
Your soul will live in me.*

*I'll miss you now
My heart is sore.*

As time goes by I'll miss you more.

*Your loving smile,
Your gentle face,
No one can fill
Your vacant place.*

Obituary

Mr. Sherwood Bertram Walker (affectionately called "Tree") was born May 16, 1960, in Gadsden, Alabama, to Willie Walker, Jr., and Clessie M. Walker. He attended school in the Gadsden Public School System. He later studied upholstery at Gadsden State Technical College and graduated with his diploma in carpentry. As a youth, he dedicated his life to Christ and joined First Baptist Church of East Gadsden under the leadership of Rev. Gabriel Cook.

Sherwood was well-known throughout Green Pasture as a dependable friend, willing to help his family, friends, and neighbors in need. He loved his music and barbecue (and so did everyone else!). His giftedness was in free-hand drawing and carpentry. His easy-going and free-spirited attitude made everyone around him feel loved! In addition, he was a father figure to many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father; two brothers, Willie R. Maxwell and LaVaughn Maxwell Sears; and nephew, Frederick Andrea Walker, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Clessie M. Walker of Gadsden, AL; three brothers, Harold (Christy) Maxwell and Frederick Walker, both of Gadsden, AL, and Eric (Tommie) Maxwell of Dayton, OH; three sisters, Sharon (Byron) Kirkland of Gadsden, AL, and Mattie Lee and Toni Walker of Marietta, GA; sister-in-law, Muriel Maxwell of Columbia, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family, and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

| When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not here to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes Filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today, While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, As much as I love you, And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me, too. | But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand That Jesus came and called my name And took me by the hand And said my place was ready In Heaven far above And that I'd have to leave behind All those I dearly love. So when tomorrow starts without me, Don't think we're far apart, For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart. |
