Reflections

*Mama We're going to miss you very much.
Miss hearing your voice and your touch
And life doesn't seem to be fair right now.
But we know we'll make it through this somehow.
Thank you for being our mother and our very best friend.
We'll always love you and miss you beyond the end.
Love, Jessica and Jeremy*

Deborah Marie Harrison was born on August 27, 1957 to the late Lorene W. Haynes and the late Charlie Leach.

Debbie as she was called was educated in the Williamson County School System. She graduated from Franklin High School in 1975, and later went to work at Ford Credit Co.

Debbie married Johnny Harrison on February 14, 1984, and to this union one child was born. She accepted Christ as her savior and united with Beech Grove P.B. Church.

Debbie loved spending time with her family who she loved dearly. She loved shopping and keeping her nails looking pretty. She also loved watching her soap operas. Debbie loved traveling to Dayton, Ohio every chance she got.

She leaves to cherish her many memories her daughter, Jessica Harrison; son, Jeremy Scruggs; grandchildren, Jeremiah Scruggs and Keegan Scruggs; sisters, Patricia Haynes, Shirley (L C) Murphy, Faye Coffee and Melanie Coffee; brother, Charles Coffee; aunt, Dorothy Catrell of Dayton, Ohio; uncles, James Leach, Eugene (Mary) Leach and George (Ethel) Leach; nieces, nephews cousins, devoted cousins, Katia Landers and Joyce Haynes; loving nieces, nephews and cousins, Niecey Houston, Angela Gentry, Shalonda Hodge, Jaz'Lynn, Syah, Jasmine Booker, Travarius Houston and Norris Smith, Jr. and friends, special friends, Roy Newson, April Moffatt and Ann Nunley.
