An Expression Of Gratitude

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

Reflections

Mom

*I still see your face before me
Your voice I long to hear...
I miss and love you dearly.
God knows, I wish, you were here.
Tears fall freely from my eyes.
Like a river, filled with grief.
My only comfort now, is that,
From pain, you've found relief.*

Missing You

Shirley Coulter was born on April 13, 1935 in Detroit, Michigan to the parents of Margaret Williams and Willie Williams. She was preceded in death by her parents and six siblings, Joyce Carter, Audrey Malone, Grace Bivings, Ella Chinn, David Williams and Stanley Williams.

Sister Coulter saw a need for God in her life at an early age accepted Christ. Sister Coulter was a proud member of New Liberty Baptist Church in Detroit, Michigan.

Shirley worked for many years at Children Hospital in Michigan, Wayne County.

Shirley left this earthly Realm 5-20-2020. It would be wrong to say that, Shirley lost her battle because she never stop fighting. No matter how challenged or how sick she was she was always determine. When anyone else would have broken Shirley stayed strong. She stayed strong because she was steadfast, unmovable and determine to lived by the word of God. Just because she is no longer here with use it doesn't mean she lost her fight. She won her battle and is resting at the feet of Jesus. I can hear her say Amen!

Shirley leaves to cherish her memories, her children, Aaron Coulter and Stephanie Longmire; granddaughter, Toric Longmire; son-in-law, Donald Longmire; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

*Spoiling kids with sweets,
The minute you stepped out of line,
That slipper's off her feet!
She never was a pushover,
The final word was hers,
And if you were to argue back,
She'd ring your bloody ears!
She had her own opinions,
She made her feelings known,
And when it came to her friends,
She could always pick a bone!*

*But she was someone I'd depend on,
Whenever things turned bad,
And someone I could talk to if I was feeling sad!
She was someone who'd stand up for me,
No matter what I'd done,
Someone who always loved me,
Like a second mum.
I'm gonna miss my grandma,
More and more each day.
I think the world's a sadder place,
Since she passed away.*
