An Expression Of Gratitude

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent these beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part.*

Reflections

*Mother...No matter where we go or what we do, like looking in a mirror there'll always be a reflection of you.
The good times-the bad times are all in the past, but the reflection of your loving smile will always last.*

*Though your heart and soul is in a different place, we'll never forget your loving face.
And if there's no mirror to be found, a reflection of your memory will always be around.*

Like a mirror our hearts are broken into, and in those broken pieces we see reflections of you.

If we could make a wish with one dream that would come true, we'd pray to God with all of our hearts for (not a reflection) but the real you.

Joyce Ann Windrow, 66, passed away June 28, 2020 at TriStar Centennial Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee. She was born March 30, 1954 in Franklin, Tennessee to the late Allen and Ruby Windrow. She is also preceded in death by her sisters, Betty Brooks and Janice Lee and her grandmother, Minnie Darden. She was educated in the Williamson County School System. Joyce accepted our Lord, Jesus Christ as her Savior in 1990 by being baptized at Providence United Primitive Baptist Church. She later moved her membership to Burns Tabernacle Primitive Baptist Church where she served as an Usher.

Joyce worked hard all of her life, even until her last days. Her work ethic was so strong. She was tough and proud. She was savvy and independent. She was kind and generous, would literally give you her last dime.

But at her core, she was "foxy, classy, sexy, sassy, a bad mama jama" with attitude. She loved shopping and she had a keen eye for interior design. She will be truly missed by so many.

Joyce leaves behind to cherish her memory, her loving and devoted daughters, Sonya Windrow and Lakisha Windrow; her grandchildren, Shavae Helm and Damiya Johnson; her great grandchildren, Jaida Leach, Brooklyn McKissack, Jamari Brown, Brailyn Helm and Akira Wells; her brother, James Windrow (Velma); her sister Connie Windrow; one brother-in-law, Sterling Lee and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
