*Vital spark of heavenly flame!
Quit, O quit this mortal frame!
Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying,
O! the pain, the bliss of dying!
Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife,
And let me languish into life!*

*Hark! They whisper: angels say,
Sister spirit, come away!
What is this absorbs me quite?*

*Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
Drowns my spirit, draws my breath?
Tell me, my soul, can this be death?*

*The world recedes; it disappears!
Heaven opens on my eyes! My ears
With sounds seraphic ring!*

*Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly!
O Grave! Where is thy victory?
O Death! Where is thy string!*

Reflections

In Our Hearts

We thought of you today.
 But that is nothing new.
 We thought about you yesterday,
 and days before that too.
 We think of you in silence.
 We often speak your name.
 Now all we have are memories
 And your picture in a frame.
 Your memory is our keepsake.
 With which we'll never part.
 God has you in his keeping
 We have you in our heart.

Our quiet angel of strength, Ms. Emma Jean Moore was born to her late, loving, parents Reverend and Mrs. Joe D. Moore February 3, 1943 in Franklin TN and the world became a better place that day. She was raised in the admonition of the Lord and accepted Him at an early age. Ms. Emma Jean Moore used those teachings as she entered the Franklin Training Public School system; furthering those lessons when she obtained long term employment as a domestic professional. Emma Jean Moore was preceded in death by her siblings, Pastor Harold T. Moore, Elder David Lewis Moore and Apostle Charlene Moore.

Ms. Emma Jean Moore took her walk with the Lord seriously. She set a fine example for all people alike and instilled in her children the importance of a relationship with Christ. She can rest knowing that her children serve a true and living God. She was a faithful member of Limestone Baptist Church in Franklin, Tennessee until her last breath. She was an active member of God's Golden Generation Senior Choir using her beautiful voice to serve God. Emma Jean Moore, our quiet angel can take her rest knowing her life was a job well done.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Revelation 21:4
