Reflections

Shayne Walker Howse was born on October 1, 1988 to Amy Howse Johnson "Aviya Israel" and Aaron House in Nashville, Tennessee. He departed this life on Friday, July 24, 2020 at the age of 31 at Tri-Star Southern Hills Hospital in Nashville Tennessee with his mother by his side. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Walter Howse and Oliver Ross Dandridge, uncles, Percy Clark, Patrick Clark and Ellis Hyde, aunts, Bernice McClain, Paula Hyde and Step-father, Dama H. Johnson "Mathusel Israel"

Shayne professed a hope in Christ and joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church where he was baptized at the TSU Gentry Center worship location under the leadership of Bishop Joseph Walker, III

Shayne was a graduate of McGavock High School in Nashville, Tennessee. He worked as a concrete finisher in the southern parts of Tennessee. He loved concrete work more than anything, as he was a hard worker and had great ambitions. Some of the many other trades of Shayne included, flooring, roofing and automobile repair, which was some of the qualities of his grandfather. Walter Howse, who was very gifted with his hands and whom Shayne loved very much as they had a genuine bond.

Shayne also had a special relationship with his daughter, Shaynah. He cared for her brothers and sisters and other children as he had a special way with children. He had a very affectionate smile.

Those left behind to cherish his memory, daughter, Shaynah Howse; mother, Amy Johnson "Aviya Israel"; father, Aaron House; brothers, Dama Hansen Johnson, II, Anthony Tigg, Tyron and Traveon; grandmothers, Amelia Howse and Lenora Clark; brother/cousin, Tijuan Evans; sisters/cousins, Jayme Glenn, Janika McCullom and Tiara Hannah; uncles, James (Jayne) Howse, Effa J. House, Steven Clark and Michael Clark; aunt, Jeanie Howse, Frances Howse, Sherrie Rives and Theresa (Reggie) McCall; cousins and many friends.
